Code of Ethics:

Members of the Fourth of July Committee, volunteers, individuals, organizations, and vendors participating in the Annual Fourth of July Celebration shall abide by the following Code of Ethics:

- 1. Members of the Committee shall be law-abiding citizens of the State of Rhode Island.
- 2. A member may be removed from the Committee if he/she is found guilty of a felony by a court of competent jurisdiction.
- 3. No member of the Committee shall use his/her position solely as a means for personal monetary profit.
- 4. Decisions of the Committee shall be made without regard to race, sex, creed, color, national origin, or health of individuals concerned.
- 5. Members shall respect the opinions and beliefs of all concerned and shall not discriminate against an individual based on his/her personal prejudices.
- 6. Volunteers who are not members of the Committee are expected to meet the same standards with regard to respecting an individual's rights and shall not use their position to discriminate against any person participating in the Celebration.
- 7. Individuals, organizations, and/or vendors participating in the Celebration are expected to meet the same standards as previously mentioned, with the exception of monetary profit. Monetary profit is contingent on approval by the appropriate subcommittee and the contract.

I have read and understand the Code of Ethics. I wish to submit my name for consideration as a member of the Bristol Fourth of July Committee beginning on October 1st.
